

Acorn A's – Our 51st Year

The NutShell

August 2022

President's Message

We were happy to see Carol and Al Low and Christina, Al's caregiver at our last meeting at Harry's. We have an opening for a July tour. If you would like to plan and lead a tour this month, contact Mona. Glenn will be leading a tour to the Coast Guard facility on August 4th. Contact him soon, if you would like to join the tour... he needs to get driver's license info to them before the tour. Our Anniversary Tour will leave Creekside on Saturday, August 13 at 10:30 an tour to the Diamantine's Villa for a barbeque of Hamburgers and Hot Dogs. Please let me know if you are coming, so I will know how much meat to buy. As usual, we are asking that attendees bring a side dish. The club will supply dessert. There is no cost to members for this event. There will be games and prizes! Cathy Martin has some beautiful era jewelry for sale. She will bring it to coffee and donuts on Mondays, or you can contact her for a private showing! Plan a tour...they're fun to lead...we have openings for the fall, the weather is perfect for touring then!

Acorn A's Meeting Minutes July 12, 2022

Welcome: President Kathy Morte welcomed Club members to our meeting starting at 11:15 at Harry's Hoffbrau.

Minutes: Carol Low moved to approve the minutes as published in the NutShell. Carl Santariano 2nd and the motion carried.

Treasurer: Glenn Martin reported he wrote a check for the Club cards.

Secretary: Mona Diamantine was standing in for the Secretary, Linda Rodriguez, and had no report for today.

NutShell Editor requested all articles be in by the 20th.

Sunshine: Judy Santariano reported for Sunshine announcing July birthdays: Glenn Martin. Brian McGarry. Steve Danzer, Mandy DeSmidt, and Wanda Romero, we sang Happy Birthday to Glenn.

Fashion: Cathy Martin brought items from her display case for sale. George Diamantine also noted there are numerous clothes from the 20's on Amazon that are reasonably priced.

No Historian report and no public relations report.

Tour Mistress: Mona Diamantine asked Judy Santariano to give a report on the Planes, Trains and Automobiles tour on June 16. Judy noted the museum was great and we had two docents. The museum was impressive and we also checked out the trains on display. Glenn Martin reported on the July 4th Parade in Alameda. The parade had 151 entrants and we had 2 cars.

Old Business: Glenn Martin updated us on the Livermore event saying we will not be participating.

New Business: President Kathy Morte passed around a sign up for the Anniversary picnic. We are having it at Mona and George's back yard. The Club will provide hamburgers and hotdogs. Mona and George signed up for water. Kathy asked participants to check side dish or appetizers to let her know what they will bring. Kathy also noted she has a name of a person that makes custom display boxes. Contact her if you are interested.

Adjournment: George Diamantine moved to adjourn, Carl Santariano 2nd and we adjourned to have our raffle and have lunch.

Raffle: Mona held the Raffle drawing and Carol Lowe won. Next month we will start again. We raised 102 dollars for the Club from the raffle.
